

Hosted PBX

American Telephone Company's Smart Phone customer's receives a robust suite of features comparable to those of any high-end system and every calling package is tailored to meet your individual company needs. We complete a thorough review of your feature requirements prior to installation to make sure all end users will be satisfied. Our Smart Phone Hosted PBX services are ideal for any business looking to replace antiquated equipment or looking to gain total control of their telecommunications environment. Note that some advanced features may require an additional charge.

Some Features and Benefits:

- No more costly equipment contracts
- Eliminate interoffice phone usage
- Reduce the costs of all MAC work (moves, adds and changes)
- Reduce the cost for remote employees
- Fax to Email
- Voicemail to Email
- Call Waiting Caller ID
- Off-net Forwarding
- Voicemail to Email Notification
- Custom Auto-Attendant
- Unlimited calling plans

Flexibility:

A truly scalable solution capable of delivering all of the features and functionality that your business needs.

Savings:

- Lower usage related charges
- Volume and term discount plans provide significant savings on already competitive ATC rates